Intensive English Program
Western Washington University
516 High Street, MS 9102
Bellingham, WA 98225-5996, USA

Western is accredited by NWCCU - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities
Member of NAFSA
Member of AWISA
Member of AAIEP

Western’s IEP is accredited by the Commission on English Language Program Accreditation for the period April 2017 through April 2022 and agrees to uphold the CEA Standards for English Language Programs and Institutions.
Located in Bellingham, Washington, a stunning natural setting between Seattle and Vancouver, B.C., Western Washington University is a nationally recognized, innovative, challenging and student-centered public university. Western offers a diverse, multicultural learning environment, and a strong sense of community. Bellingham provides small town benefits—friendliness, safety, and convenience—along with many of the opportunities of a large city. In the past five years, more than 10 national magazines have named Bellingham one of the best small cities in the U.S.

Intensive English Program (IEP)

Western’s IEP helps students learn English for business or social purposes, or prepares students for degree study.

IEP offers small class sizes with exceptional, skilled instructors. IEP creates opportunities for students to improve their spoken and written English through classroom work and interactions with university students and the community.

Conditional Admission

Students applying for IEP may also apply for conditional admission to Western; students do not need a TOEFL or IELTS score to apply. Conditional Admission students must attend IEP full-time for at least one quarter. Before enrolling in credit classes, students must complete Level 6 in IEP.

Global Pathway Program – International Year

The International Year program prepares students to succeed in an undergraduate degree at Western. This one-, two-, or three-quarter program provides academic preparation for a wide range of majors that suit all interests. Students will develop their academic and English language skills in a supportive environment while they adjust to living and learning in the U.S. After completing the program, students continue their undergraduate degree with confidence.
