

Experience report about my stay at TU Dortmund University Consent Form

Your report can help other students to plan their stay at TU Dortmund University and to get the motivation to go abroad. This is why we would be very grateful to be able to publish your experiences on the homepage of the International Office.

name surname

- My report can be published in the internet (www.aaa.tu-dortmund.de)¹.
- My report can be published in the internet with the following changes (www.aaa.tu-dortmund.de)¹:
- My first name shall be deleted.
- other: _____

With my signature I assure that I have written this report myself and that I possess all rights to the full extent - especially for texts, pictures, graphs, charts or other materials protected by copyright – that I may transfer these copyrights for the purpose of informing other students – to the International Office of TU Dortmund University – in order to publish my report on the homepage of the International Office.

I know that the report will be available to a worldwide audience after publishing in the internet. Further use of the report by a third party cannot be excluded.

The consent is valid from the day of the signature for an indefinite time. I know that I can withdraw my consent at any time. The withdrawal would mean that the published report would have to be deleted from the homepage of the International Office of TU Dortmund University within seven days.

- My report shall not be published on the homepage.

City, Date

Signature

¹ Your surname will be deleted before uploading your report on the homepage